NEWS RELEASE

Cleveland-Cliffs Announces Election of Directors

CLEVELAND, OH—May 10, 2005—Cleveland-Cliffs Inc (NYSE: CLF) today announced that, at its Annual Meeting of Shareholders today, the following individuals were re-elected as Directors of the Company:

- John S. Brinzo, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Company.
- Ronald C. Cambre, Former Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Newmont Mining Corporation.
- Ranko Cucuz, Former Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Hayes Lemmerz International, Inc.
 - David H. Gunning, Vice Chairman of the Company.
 - James D. Ireland III, Managing Director of Capital One Partners, Inc.
- Francis R. McAllister, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Stillwater Mining Company.
- Roger Phillips, Former President and Chief Executive Officer of IPSCO Inc.
- Richard K. Riederer, Former President and Chief Executive Officer of Weirton Steel Corporation.
- Alan Schwartz, Professor at Yale Law School and Yale School of Management.

In accordance with the Company's retirement policy, Mr. John C. Morley and Mr. Stephen B. Oresman did not stand for re-election.

Commenting on the election results, John Brinzo, Chairman of the Board, said: "On behalf of the entire Board, I would like to thank John and Stephen for their many years of wise counsel and countless contributions. Each has played a significant role in Cliffs' development over the years and their guidance will be missed."

As a result of the two directors not standing for re-election, the Board is now made up of seven independent directors and two inside directors.

Cliffs' governance process is based on its Corporate Governance Guidelines, which are available on the Company's website at <http://www.cleveland-cliffs.com>.

NEWS RELEASE

Donald J. Gallagher Promoted to Executive Vice President of Cleveland-Cliffs

Cleveland, OH—May 10, 2005—Cleveland-Cliffs Inc (NYSE: CLF) today announced that, effectively immediately, Donald J. Gallagher is promoted to executive vice president of the Company, retaining his current roles as chief financial officer and treasurer, with responsibilities for finance, financial reporting, accounting, financial planning, treasury and investor relations functions.

Mr. Gallagher, 52, began his career with Cleveland-Cliffs in 1981 as an ore sales representative in the commercial department and advanced through a number of increasingly responsible management positions until being named vice president-sales in August 1998. He was named Cliffs' senior vice president, chief financial officer and treasurer in July 2003 before assuming his current position.

Chairman and Chief Executive Officer John Brinzo said: "Don's leadership and exceptional abilities have been instrumental in helping our Company with its strategy of transforming into a larger, international merchant mining company. We look forward to his ongoing contributions as Cliffs continues to build on the momentum of recent years."

A native of Cleveland, Ohio, Gallagher earned his bachelor's degree in Economics from Yale University and his MBA from the Weatherhead School of Business at Case Western Reserve University. He has served as chairman of the Cleveland Section of The American Institute of Mining, Metallurgical, and Petroleum Engineers (A.I.M.E.), and is currently a member of Financial Executives International, the Iron and Steel Society of the A.I.M.E. and the American Iron and Steel Institute. He is also active in the local community, including serving on the board of the Boys and Girls Clubs of Cleveland.
